

Databases for Verbs & Nouns

Polish Nouns - Part 1 \(by Jacek Iwanski, shareware\)

<ftp://ftp.amug.org/pub/info-mac/edu/lang/>

"Polish Nouns - Part 1" contains declension of 8000 nouns (from a to p). There are more than 300 predefined custom groups of nouns available. These cover almost all declension subpatterns (these split into 3 classes: masculine, feminine and neuter). There are also 20 thematic groups like: Business related, In the Town, Clothes, Food and Drink, Human Body, Medicine and Health, At Home and more...

Italian Verbs 1.2.5 \(by Jacek Iwanski, freeware\)

<ftp://ftp.amug.org/pub/info-mac/edu/lang/>

"Italian Verbs 1.2.5" contains conjugation of more than 1000 verbs (about 500 irregular verbs). There are 7 predefined custom groups of verbs available. Other information about these verbs is also included,

Italian Nouns \(by Adrienne Forbes\)

Russian Verbs and Nouns - in German \(by Richard Wellmann <wellma01@fsrz1.rz.uni-passau.de>, shareware\)

Swiss-German Verbs and Nouns \(by Flavio Spirgi\)

Greek Verbs \(by Goran Bergstrom\)

English to English Dictionary \(public domain\)

To get a full access to the databases you should use the registered version of the "Verbs and Nouns" program. The full access to the password protected (shareware or commercial) databases requires the additional registration to the database author.

All questions and remarks concerning the "Verbs and Nouns" program itself should be sent to me <jiwanski@alpha.luc.ac.be>. All questions concerning the particular databases should be sent to the database author.

I am always glad to receive remarks about my software.