Settings Files:

With Settings Files, you'll be able to save your settings to an outside files so that you can later apply them to your Finder after a system installation or to other Finders.

To save your settings to a file, select the Save current settings to… menu item under the Control menu.
To load a settings file, select the Load Settings File… menu item under the Control menu.