About AnyFolder shell extension.

 "AnyFolder" is a shell extension, which allows you to assign any icon to any file folder in the Windows95/NT shell. You can customize icon for open and close state of the each folder of your choice.

▪ To assign tailored icon to the folder, right-click on the folder, choose "Properties" from the context menu and go to the "Icon" property page.

▪ If you wish to send order and obtain your registration information for "AnyFolder" you may run "Register" application, included in the installation set.
Make sure to follow instructions in the dialog and it does the entire job for you. Registration information will be e-mailed to you within 1 to 4 days.

▪ To uninstall "AnyFolder" you may run "Add/Remove Programs" from the Control Panel and double-click on the line titled "AnyFolder shell extension".

Shows icons for the folder. Double-click on icon to change it.

Use this button to change selected icon.

Use this button to set icons of the folder to default shell icons.

Check this box to make large icon of the folder opens and closes.

Check this box to make Windows paint icons using all possible colors. HiColor (16 bit) or better video mode required.

Click this button to remove customization from the folder.

Use this button to bring up registration dialog and enter your registration information.

Contact author via e-mail at artem@kagi.com or visit web page http://oop.rosweb.ru/users/a/artem/index.html