DESKTOP THEME FOR WINDOWS 95 Version 1.2

Created by Warren Racz
Coca-Cola, Coke are © Copyright Coca-Cola Co.
Windows 95 is © Copyright Microsoft Corp.

Requirements:

Windows 95, and the Plus! or the Theme Manager which can be downloaded from Microsoft at `http://www.microsoft.com` or `ftp://ftp.microsoft.com`. I recommend that you are running in 800x600 resolution and high color (or 16-bit) mode for best quality. Someone not running Windows 95 can also assign the sounds, pictures and icons included to their Windows 3.1X setup manually. I also recommend that you use WinZip for Windows 95 to uncompress these files as they have long names.

Installation:

Unzip the ZIP contents into the `…/Plus!/Theme` directory (or wherever you keep your desktop themes) and simply run the Theme Manager. Alternatively you can double-click on the `Coca-Cola (high color).theme` file. For those of you who are using the Plus! Demo (downloaded from Microsoft), a good trick is to rename the `Coca-Cola (high color).theme` file as the Dangerous Creatures theme file. I have tested this, and it does work.

                                   web (from v1.0 & v1.1)

Trouble shooter / Version changes:

I have noticed that sometimes the animations did not work in v1.0, as there were too many frames for it to load up in memory, and as such I have removed a few from `busy.ani` to allow it to always load for v1.1. The extra animated bottles have been removed for v1.1

If for any reason the screen saver `Coca-Cola.exe` doesn't load, put it in your `.../windows/system` directory and manually select it as your screen saver. In version 1.2, I have renamed it with a `.SCR` extension so that may help fix any problems. If it still won't work, then right click on it and use the `install` command.

I have had reports from some people that the default sound (used as the menu pop-up sound) resulted in a continuous buzzing sound from their sound card. The best advice I can offer is to uninstall the theme, reboot and re-install it again… and if that doesn't work, remove the sound by editing the `Coca-Cola (high color).theme` file with the notepad under:

```
[AppEvents\Schemes\Apps\.Default\MenuPopup\.Current]
DefaultValue=%ThemeDir%Coca-Cola default sound.wav
```
to:
```
[AppEvents\Schemes\Apps\.Default\MenuPopup\.Current]
DefaultValue=

Version 1.2 now does not include any of the extras (icons etc.), and they have instead been put in a the `Coca-ColaExtras.ZIP` file. As well, I have added a new wallpaper for the original. If you find that the icons aren't visiable enough, I recommend you select `<none>` for a wallpaper in your control panel.
