

Celestial Navigations
David Cuzzo, Basking Ridge, NJ, USA

Incredible...moving... The inclusion of "Horses" by Celestial Navigations just confirmed that my choice to subscribe to Nautilus was the right one. The combination of audio and video images helped to create the same mental pictures that are generated when you become submerged in a favorite novel. The topic of this story also happened to be appropriate -- since I happen to spend much of my life around horses. I am looking forward to the next edition of Nautilus already!
