

Before using this game software

Read this help file before using the SEGA WORLDWIDE SOCCER PC for Windows 95.

Notes on the SEGA PC disk

 Safety precautions

1. In very rare cases, the bright light and flicker from a monitor or television screen may cause some people to suffer from symptoms such as temporary muscle convulsion or lost awareness. Those who have experienced such symptoms should consult a doctor before using this software. If such symptoms develop during use, immediately stop using the software and consult a doctor.
2. When using this software, make sure the room is well lit and keep an adequate distance from the monitor or television screen. For your own health, take a rest of 10 to 20 minutes every hour and don't use this software when you are tired or short of sleep.

 Keeping the disk free from flaws and dust

Be careful when handling the disk to keep both sides of the disk free from flaws and dust. Do not bend the disk or enlarge the center hole.

 Writing on the disk

Do not write or stick labels on the surface of the disk.

 Removal of dirt

Lightly wipe dust off the disk with a soft cloth used for cleaning glasses radially from the center outward. Do not use thinner or benzine.

 Storage location

After use, place the disk back into its case and store it in a location that is not hot or humid.

 SEGA PC disk is only for computers

Never use the disk with ordinary CD players. Doing so may damage the headphones or speakers.

 Auto save function

This game software saves the scores and option settings on your hard disk. Because of this auto save function, if the power switch or reset button is pressed except on the title screen, saved data may be destroyed.

Explanation of menu bars

Select[Serial Connection For Directplay].

Modem game (by two persons)

You can enjoy playing against a remote player by using a telephone line and a modem of at least 14400 bps. Both players must set the following in advance:

- Kick off time
- Caller side
- Modem setting
- Payment of telephone charge

 Before starting a game by modem **

A modem game requires the following setup:

• Modem connection

Connect a modem to the personal computer and telephone line while referring to the relevant operation manuals, and the Help of Windows 95.

 Procedure for starting a game by modem **

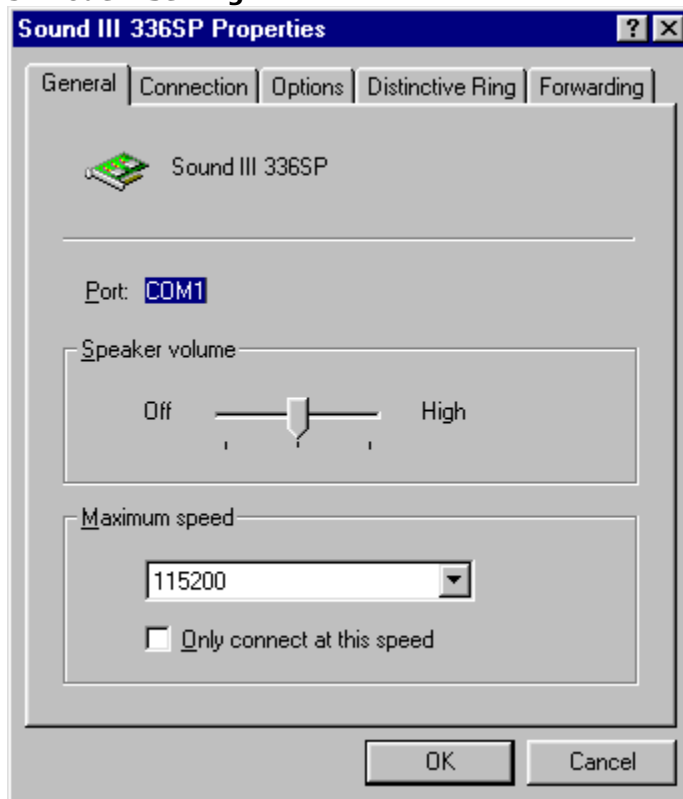

1. Selecting [Modem Connection For Directplay]

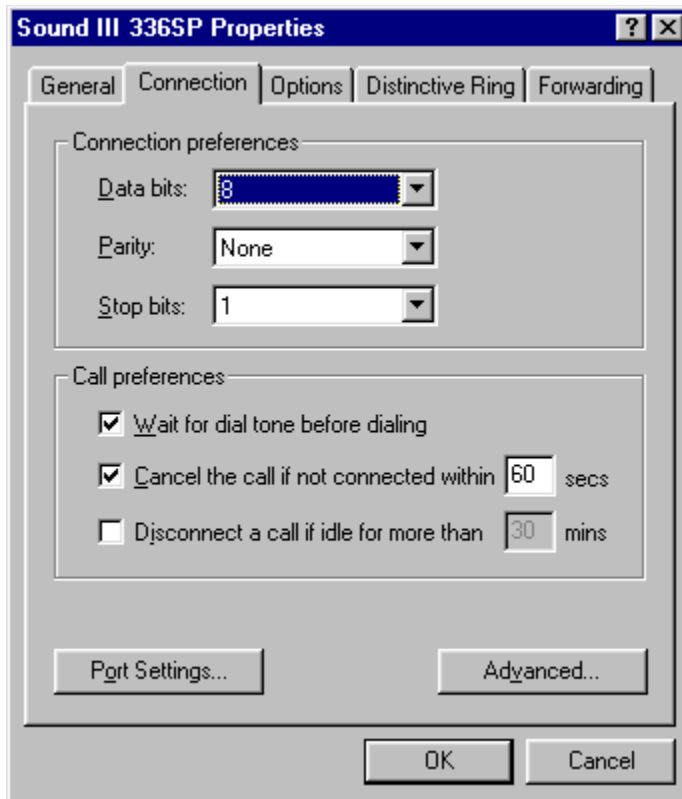

Selecting [LINK GAME] on the mode select screen displays the window for selecting a connection method. For a modem game, select [Modem Connection For Directplay].

2. Entering a name

Enter the name of the modem game. This is used to let the other player know who you are, so select a simple name. If the name already displayed is OK, you don't need to enter a name.

3. Modem setting

The modem setting screen is displayed. Select the connected modem and click on [Setting] to set a communication port and communication speed. Make the settings as shown above. See the operation manuals of the modem and personal computer, and the Help of Windows 95 if necessary.

 Note : Do not check the Data compression option

4. Selecting whether you dial or wait for a call from the other person

If you are going to dial, select [Dial]; if you are going to wait for the other person to call, select [Wait]. If both players select either [Dial] or [Wait] together, the match cannot start. Agree in advance which person is to select [Dial] or [Wait].

5. Notification of 1P or 2P

If you select [Dial], you become [1P] in the game; if you select [Wait], you become [2P]. After checking this, click on [OK].

6. Entering a phone number

On the screen of the player who selected [Dial], the window for entering a phone number is displayed. Enter the phone number of the other person (check the phone number in advance).

7. Waiting window

[Wait] player When the other player appears, their name is displayed on the waiting window. If you want to play, click on [OK]. The match then kicks off.

[Dial] player If the other person agrees to play, the match starts.

Subsequent operations are the same as those in EXHIBITION mode.

LAN game (two to four persons)

If your personal computer is connected to a LAN, you can connect and play against other people with personal computers on the same LAN. Since this requires a stable communication speed, operation may pause or slow down depending on the environment.

* Before starting a game by LAN ****

A game by LAN requires the following setup:

• Connection of personal computer to LAN

A LAN game of WORLDWIDE SOCCER PC requires a LAN with the TCP/IP or IPX/SPX compatible protocol. For details of the connection method, ask the network administrator of your LAN.

• [Network] setting

Open [Network] of [Control Panel] for setting. For details, see the Help of Windows 95, or consult the network administrator of your LAN. WORLDWIDE SOCCER PC does not require file sharing to be set.

* Procedure for starting a game by LAN ****

1. Selecting the connection method

Selecting [LINK GAME] on the mode select screen displays the window for selecting a connection method.

• When using a LAN supporting TCP/IP

Select [Internet TCP Connection For Directplay].

• When using a LAN supporting IPX/SPX compatible protocol

Select [IPX Connection For Directplay].

2. Creating a new group or selecting a group recruiting players

• When recruiting players to create a new group

Click on [Create].

• When joining a group recruiting players

The names of groups recruiting new players are displayed in the upper list box. Select the group you want to join, and click on [Join]. The players in the selected group are displayed in the lower list box. If no group is displayed in the upper box, there is no group that is recruiting players. Create a new group.

{button ,J('`,`create')} If [Create] is selected

{button ,J('`,`join')} If [Join] is selected

3. Entering names

Enter your name for the LAN game and the name of the new group to be created. Since these names let others recognize you, use a simple name. If the names already displayed are OK, you do not need to enter a name.

4. Waiting for other players to gather

The players joining the newly created group are displayed in the list box of the [Under recruitment of fighting players] window. When enough players have gathered, click on [Start]. Two to four persons can participate.

5. Assigning 1P, 2P, 3P, and 4P

Assign players to each of 1P, 2P, 3P, and 4P. Click on [OK] to start the game. Subsequent operations are the same as those in EXHIBITION mode.

3. Entering a name

Enter your name for the LAN game. Since this name lets others recognize you, use a simple name. If the name already displayed are OK, you do not need to enter a name.

4. Waiting for players to gather

The players joining the group are displayed in the list box of the [Under recruitment of fighting players] window. Wait for the player who created the group to stop recruiting.

5. Assigning 1P, 2P, 3P, and 4P

The player who created the group assigns a player to each of 1P, 2P, 3P, and 4P. Wait until the assignment has been set. Once assignment is complete, the game starts. Subsequent operations are the same as those in EXHIBITION mode.

Game by cable (two persons)

Two personal computers can be connected for a game using a serial cable (cross cable).

* Before starting a game by cable ****

A cable game requires two personal computers to be connected through a serial cable (cross cable). For the connection method, see the operation manuals of the personal computers, and the Help of Windows 95.

* Procedure for starting a cable game ****

1. Selecting [Serial Connection For Directplay]

Selecting [LINK GAME] on the mode select screen displays the window for selecting a connection method. For a game by cable, Select [Serial Connection For Directplay].

2. Entering a name

Enter your name for the cable game. Since this name lets others recognize you, use a simple name. If the name already displayed are OK, you do not need to enter a name.

3. Setting the communication port

The communication port setting screen is displayed. Make the settings as shown above, matching the personal computer of the other person. [Bits/second] is limited depending on the types of personal computers. Set a speed of at least 14400 bps that your personal computer supports. See the operation manual of the personal computer if necessary.

4. Determining the connection

A message is displayed showing that you are waiting for the other person. If the other person has already finished the connection procedure, this message is not displayed.

When the other person appears, their name is displayed. Click on [OK].

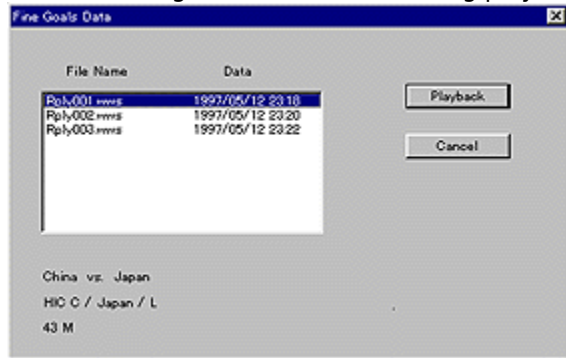

5. Notification of 1P or 2P

The system shows whether your are 1P or 2P. Click on [OK] to start the game.

Subsequent operations are the same as those in EXHIBITION mode.

GOLDEN GOAL

In this mode, goal scenes saved during play are played back.

Select data in the dialog, and click on [Playback].

Hint

- Information on selected data is displayed in the lower portion of the dialog.
- For the method of saving goal scenes during play, see the explanation of [Replay records mode] in [Setting] on the menu bar.

Explanation of play screen

The screens displayed during play are common among modes.

1. Marker

The soccer player currently controlled by a player is indicated with a number. The number represents the active soccer player.

2. Current score

3. Elapsed time of play

4. Radar

The positions of the ball and soccer players are displayed. The point at which the lines cross marks the position of the ball.

5. Active soccer player

The name of soccer player currently being controlled by a player is displayed. Keep track of the soccer player you are controlling as you play!

Let's start! - Techniques and rules -

{button ,Jl(`',`tech_kougekikb')} Attack techniques

This works when a team mate has the ball. Attack with dribbles, and shoot for the opposition's goal using a combination of passes, fake, and centering. This is the basic pattern of attack.

{button ,Jl(`',`tech_shubikb')} Defense techniques

This works when the opposition has the ball. Steal the ball from the approaching player using techniques such as a sliding tackle and shoulder charge. But beware of fouls depending on how you charge.

{button ,Jl(`',`tech_kyotsukb')} Techniques common to attack and defense

{button ,Jl(`',`tech_bfreekb')} Techniques for free ball

As soon as the ball becomes free, the next action (pass or shoot) can be taken without trapping.

{button ,Jl(`',`tech_restartkb')} Restart techniques

When a ball goes off the pitch or the game is stopped because of a foul or some other reason, restart by a throw-in, goal kick, corner kick, free kick, or penalty kick.

Hint

Corner kick Specifying a kick direction with an arrow key, then pressing the [Z] key shoots the ball directly at the goal; pressing the [X] key makes a longer kick; pressing the [C] key makes a higher kick. The angle can be changed with the [Shift] key before kicking.

 When foul is applied

Free kick When foul happens outside the penalty area, a free kick is given. Specifying a kick direction with an arrow key, then pressing the [Z] key shoots directly at the goal; pressing the [X] key makes a pass; pressing the [C] key makes a long pass.

Penalty kick When a foul happens inside the penalty area, a penalty kick is given. Specifying a shoot direction with an arrow key, then pressing the [Z] key makes a powerful shot emphasizing power rather than ball control; pressing the [X] key makes a low shot emphasizing ball control.

 Warnings for dangerous foul

If you shoulder charge or sliding tackle an opposition player, a yellow card or red card may sometimes be issued. If two yellow cards or one red card is issued during one game, the soccer player is ordered off the pitch. If two yellow cards are issued, the soccer player is out of the next game, and after the second time, the soccer player can't participate in two games. Remember this rule!
