TC's Toolbox v2.4 - Registration Form

Hex File Viewer, Font Viewer, File Workshop, Text Editor, Calendar, Phone Dialer, Stopwatch, System Monitor, Code Reference and Save It! are the programs of TC's Toolbox which is a Shareware product. You may copy these programs and distribute them as a set to your friends for their evaluation. If you want to continue to use this software after the 30 day evaluation period, then you are required to pay the registration fee. Please refer to the Help files for additional information on Shareware, registration, license and support.

Benefits of registering:

* Legally continue to use this collection of programs (see license agreement in help file).

* Letter confirming your registration.

* Code to disable the "Unregistered Shareware" messages in the programs.

* Free Mail & E-mail support.

* Notification of future upgrades.

* Copy of current version of TC's Toolbox (when you pay S&H).

* Help to keep Shareware a viable means of distributing low cost, high quality, software. By registering your Shareware programs you make it possible for the authors to continue to write new programs.

Upgrades:

Minor version changes (v2.3 to v2.4) are free to registered users and will be shipped to registered users as soon as they are released. If you should have recieved a free upgrade and have not, then contact Tim Carlson at one of the address given under Questions or comments. Note: Free upgrades are only for minor version changes when you have registered a previous version with the same major version number.

Major version changes (1.xx to 2.xx) are available at a reduced price for registered users. See the order form below for pricing.

Student discount:

Students can register at a lower price, but must provide a school name and address.
