Overview

Overview

My God! how little do my country men know what precious blessings they are in possession of, and which no other people on earth enjoy.

Thomas Jefferson

In a real sense, most of the documents contained within this program can be considered suppressed simply because they were not, until now, readily available to citizens. Consequently, not one citizen in ten thousand has ever read his own States Bill of Rights. The irony is that the documents themselves state that their primary purpose is "THAT THE GREAT, GENERAL, AND ESSENTIAL PRINCIPLES OF LIBERTY AND FREE GOVERNMENT MAY BE RECOGNIZED AND ESTABLISHED"

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

If a nation expects to be ignorant and free it expects what never was and never will be.

Thomas Jefferson

These documents are the supreme law of our land, and the bible of our American Heritage. Any Law passed by any body of government must conform to these documents. To defend your rights you must understand your rights.

Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction.

Ronald Reagan

Running CLL

Running CLL

We assume you know how to use Windows(tm) to load and save a file. If not take the time to read your Windows(tm) users guide.

To start CLL, double click on the CLL icon in the CLL group.

Select a document by double clicking on its title inside the list boxes. The arrows on right of the list box move the list of documents up and down to show more selections. After you have selected a document the viewer will appear. Use the arrows on the right of the text box to scroll the text. You may load the document into the editor with the editor button at the top of the viewer screen. Close the viewer with the close button at the top left of the viewer screen. The Yellow book can be viewed by selecting YELLOW BOOK from the menu bar at the top of the screen. To Exit CLL select EXIT from the menu bar.

Using CLL with other Word Processors

You can use your Word Processor with CLL To do this, double click the editor setup icon on the CLL Group and type in the complete path to your editor. If your editor is already included in your path statement, you can type the program name that starts your editor. (Example)--Type WINWORD, for Word for Windows(tm), WS for Wordstar(tm).

Editor

EDITOR

Eagle Software's Editor works the same as Notepad and Write in your Windows(tm) package. The major difference is the number of forms you can edit in a session. One in Notepad, as many as you have memory for in Eagle Edit. This editor is easy to use and no help is needed. Save your work before you exit, with an .LGF extension. We assume you know how to use Windows(tm) to load and save a file. If not take the time to read your Windows(tm) users guide.

Entering Text

When you begin to enter text, an insertion point (flashing vertical bar) marks the place where the text you type will begin.

To enter text in a new document:

Start typing.

Press ENTER or the SPACEBAR to move the insertion point to a different place on the page. Pressing ENTER moves the insertion point to the next line. Pressing the SPACEBAR moves the insertion point across the line to the right.

To enter text in an existing document:

Click where you want text to appear, start typing.

Or use the DIRECTION keys to move the insertion point where you want text to appear.
