1. Description

Centaurus Notes is a utility program that enables you to maintain reminder notes on your computer. You can create up to 32 individual notes. Each note is resizable and editable using standard editing procedures. Centaurus Notes will save the positions and contents of every note (if they contain text) upon program termination. The next time you bring up the program, the notes will look exactly the same way you left them when you previously exited the program. All program functions can be performed by the mouse or shortcut keys.
