

The document's designated Printer cannot be located, but this usually means the document's application cannot be found. Once you locate the correct application, FLIGHTCHECK® can then determine more details about the Printer (from the discovered PPD or PDF).