Main Screen

The main screen is FLIGHTCHECK's main functional window. This window displays all of the information gathered from the document in a concise and easy to understand manner.

The main screen is split into several segments.