Introduction

Welcome to Commandos: Behind Enemy Lines. A real time tactical wargame that features intense combat spiced with formidable mission puzzles.

Did you ever imagine yourself in classic war movies such as "Eagle's Nest", "Dirty Dozen", "Force Ten From Navarrone", etc. Well, now you really can venture behind enemy lines. As commander of an elite group of Commandos in WWII, you can relive history by completing some of the most hair-raising missions of the war. You are outgunned and outmanned, but not outclassed.

Each mission starts with a briefing that outlines your goals. There are several secondary objectives that must be completed in order to complete the overall mission. Save often and plan your moves carefully. There are many paths to solving your goals. The main objective is NOT to lose any Commandos. They are indispensable. Each Commando has unique combat abilities that others cannot match.

The German units outnumber and out gun your boys. If you attempt to fight them head on, you will quickly lose your team. Instead, try to watch their patrol paths, and then take them out in a stealthy/ambush manner. German soldiers have realistic AI. They can hear and see your men. They can see footprints and dead bodies. They also have unique dispositions. Some will merely ask you to halt, while others will execute you on sight.

Commandos can operate many items/objects – you will see the cursor change to a hand pulling a lever when this action is possible.

Your men have two main weapons: Gun and Knife. The knife is silent and will not attract attention (just make sure Tiny or Spooky moves the body!). The gun is quick and has a longer range. It is best used in ambush. However it will attract attention.

Listen carefully to your mission briefing and plot your attack.

YOUR TEAM

Jerry "tiny" Mchale – "tiny" usually solves problems with his fists and combat knife. In Chicago, he was often cited for climbing skyscrapers in order to win beer money.

Rene "Spooky" Duchamp – this Frenchman is the brain of the group. A master of disguise and guile, he will worm his way into any German stronghold to get his man. Use his lethal injection to finish a quiet job.

Thomas "Inferno" Hancock – this Englishman is the master of flame. He is renowned for his "explosive" temper and wicked talent with nitro glycerin.

Sir Francis "Duke" Woolridge – an arrogant lad from England who is a lethal killing machine with his silenced sniper rifle. Reliable, but just do not disturb his tea time.

James "Fins" Blackwood – this Aussie is fish out of water. A marine expert who owns the water and especially likes to use his knife to sardine German grunts.

Sid Perkins – expert driver of all things with wheels. Raised in the toughest corner of Brooklyn. Loves hunting, Germans that is, with his bear trap!

NOTE: this is an early demo, a fraction of the retail game, therefore the possibility of problems is increased. We cannot provide technical support for the demo.

The final game will include these features:

- There are 20 Missions

- There are 4 Training Missions (Boot Camp)
- Six player co-op multiplayer game with new missions every month on the Commandos website
- Complete vocal Commando and enemy feedback
- Career Mode Tracks your performance for each mission and cumulatively rates your performance
- Tenacious enemy AI with multiple units (including guard dogs!) ranked on skill and perception
- There is a really cool secret mission (hint: Colditz) that you can only get if you obtain a certain rank in the game.
- The missions are broken-up into FOUR geographical regions: North Africa, France, Germany, and Norway. Each region has special objectives and challenges.
- A mission editor may be released – uncertain at the moment.
