Agent Audio Pro

Agent Audio Shareware

Agent Audio Pro

Introducing "Agent Audio Pro," the advanced commercial version of Clixsounds' highly-acclaimed shareware sound customization application. Agent Audio Pro includes all the features of the shareware version and many more, including the creation of "Replacer Agents," automatic sound replacer applications that include your own sounds. With Agent Audio Pro, you're not just limited to System 7 (SND) format sounds. Import popular formats like .WAV, .AIFF, .AU, QuickTime, Sound Designer II, MPEG, MIDI, and others. Delete, edit, add, and record sounds right into your software, and more!

Agent Audio Pro on CD-ROM empowers you to easily:

- View and play sounds embedded within programs and files
- Replace a program's sounds with your own Macintosh sound files
- Create archives of sound settings for back-up or reverting to them later
- Create "Replacer Agents," automatic sound replacers with your own sounds
- Import WAVE, .AIFF, .AU, QuickTime, and other sound formats for use
- Record your own sounds right into Agent Audio for use
- Save a program's sound resources to individual Macintosh sound files
- Delete and add sound resources to your programs and files
- Edit sound resource names and numbers within programs and files
- Drag and drop multiple sounds into the source and destination lists
- And more!

The Agent Audio Pro CD-ROM also includes:

- Interface sounds that play when using Agent Audio Pro
- A variety of sounds to get your collection started and use to customize software
- Complete electronic documentation with step-by-step usage instructions

Hacking into applications to change sounds used to take skill and would pose a risk in ruining your software. Not any more. Agent Audio "solves the crime" of boring sounds and empowers you to customize your software with YOUR sounds, not some cheap beeps or bells without style or personality.

Agent Audio Pro lets you safely replace the "snd" resources of any application or file that already has them. Select the program you wish to customize to view the available sounds. Then select the sounds you wish to use, click the "move" button, and Agent' does all of the work for you!

With Agent Audio Pro, you can create "Replacer which are small applications that contain your custom sounds. These applications are sound replacers, which you can send to your associates so they, too, can enjoy custom same software. You can also save these Agents for your own use to allow you to from custom sound sets without having to change them through Agent Audio.

Agent Audio Pro brings you many new ways to customize your Mac's sounds. Replace the your games with your favorite song, the sounds in your America Online client. You can literally customize any software with sound resources to your liking.

Agent Audio Pro is available from Clixsounds for $29.95, or for $17.95 to registered users of Agent Audio shareware. It is also available as part of any of our bundle packages at a discounted price. (See the page on product bundles.)
