

Delay sample

Where  $[E][D][x]$  means "do not start this division's sample for the first  $x$  ticks in this division, play the sample after this". This implies that if  $x$  is 0, then you will hear no delay, but actually there will be a VERY small delay. Note that this effect only influences a sample if it was started in this division.