

Symbionts™ is distributed as shareware. If you use this program you must license it by mailing a completed registration form and payment. You may send a registration form and payment via Kagi Shareware by using the accompanying Register application. See the application for payment methods and mailing instructions. Click I've Registered to personalize this software for your use once you have registered.