The following members of your organisation are required to read the following Limited Warrenty and License Agreement and sign in agreement in the appropriate section. We require the signatures of the IT Director / Manager responsible for the OfficeTalk workgroup, the senior Line Manger responsible for the members of the OfficeTalk workgroup, the OfficeTalk Supervisor and the engineer who will be responsible for using the DDFs to change data in any live OfficeTalk database.

OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit Limited Warranty

Sareen Software Plc warrant that the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit will produce a complete set of Data Definition Files for every table excepting the License Table that exist in an OfficeTalk Version 1.51 database when the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit is run. Sareen Software Plc makes no further warranties express or implied in respect of the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit or the Data Definition Files produced by the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit and is not liable for any direct or consequential effects of using the Data Definition Files to modify in any way the contents of any table in an OfficeTalk database.

OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit License Agreement

We, the undersigned understand that the full version of the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit provides complete read/write access to any area of the OfficeTalk data structure and the Toolkit could be used to modify the contents of a table without making the consequent modifications to related tables. We further understand that this would destroy the referential integrity of the OfficeTalk data structure, thus rendering OfficeTalk at worst unusable, at best inaccurate or unreliable. We accept that our licence to use the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit is subject to the following undertaking.

We undertake that any software that uses the DDFs created by the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit change in any way the data held in an OfficeTalk database will be thoroughly tested to our satisfaction on a recent copy of the specific OfficeTalk database prior to implementation on the live OfficeTalk database. We have read and accept the Limited Warranty that Sareen Software Plc offers in respect of the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit and accept that Sareen Software is not in any way liable for the incorrect usage of the DDFs created by the OfficeTalk Data Access Toolkit.
