

CorelDRAW allows you to add text directly inside graphical objects in your drawing. The object's outline acts as a border, wrapping text automatically when you reach the edges of an object.

Adding text inside shapes gives you the same speed and convenience as Artistic text, with the advanced formatting capabilities of Paragraph text.

Click the Next button to learn about adding text to objects.