The next step is to set the depth of the bevel. The depth represents the vertical distance between the top and bottom of the beveled edge. In other words, depth is the dimension you'd see if you viewed a cross-section of the beveled object.

1. In the Extrude Roll-Up, type 0.15 in the Bevel Depth box. This sets the bevel depth to 0.15 inches.