

Once the blend is attached to the path, you can move its start or end objects along the path. These objects stay attached to the path no matter where you drag.

1. Using the Pick tool, drag the start object along the path. This is the bottom object in the blend.
2. Repeat step 1, this time dragging the end object. The end object is the top object in the blend.

