

To select device profiles yourself, choose your devices by model and manufacturer from Color Manager's list boxes for each device type.

For most users, this is the last step in system calibration.

If you did not find one of your devices in the list of profiles, choose Generate Or Edit A Profile from the list box.

Click Help in Corel Color Manager for step-by-step instructions and to learn more about custom device calibration.