

When creating color styles, you can link colors together in a "parent-child" relationship. A parent color determines the hue of its linked child colors.

To create a parent color style:

1. Click the New Color Style button.
2. Choose a color from the palette or model.
3. Type the name "Sphere" in the Style field, then click OK.