

The Contour feature lets you add a series of concentric shapes to any closed shape you create using CorelDRAW's drawing tools. These shapes include polygons, ellipses, rectangles, and freehand shapes.

In this Tutor, you'll learn how to use the Contour feature to add contour shapes inside, outside, or to the center of an object. You'll also learn how to change basic contour properties.