The first step in applying contour shapes is to create the object to which you want to apply them.

To help save you time, we've created some objects for you. You can choose which object or objects you want to use as you work through this Tutor.

  Click here to add these objects to the Drawing Window.