

Before you can see the effects of the tools on the Color Wheel page, you need to add some color to the object you're working with. For the remaining procedures, you can use the object to which you applied the Outside contours option.

1. Select the object with the Pick tool.
2. Click the red color swatch in the Color

Palette.