

When you cut an open path with the Knife tool, you can set it to automatically close the open paths that result from the cut, or you can set the tool to leave open paths open.

To set the Knife tool to automatically close open paths, enable the Auto-Close On Cut button.

Disable this button if you don't want the Knife tool to close the open paths that it cuts.