When the Extrude Roll-Up opens, you'll need to click the Vanishing Point tab to display the Vanishing Point page. This page provides controls for setting the basic properties of the extrusion. These properties include type, depth, and direction. Before you can set these properties, however, you need to select an object

1. Click the Pick tool.

2. Click any object in the Drawing

   Window.