

You're now ready to apply a basic extrusion effect to the object. To do this, you use the controls on the Extrude Roll-Up.

The first list box on the Vanishing Point page lets you choose which type of extrusion you want. Just click the down arrow at the right of the list box, then choose an extrusion type. Click the Apply button when you have the type you want.