CorelDRAW 7 allows you to publish projects you create directly to HTML (Hypertext Markup Language).

You can view this output file directly in your Web browser or use segments of it in another HTML document.

This Tutor shows you how to publish your file directly to HTML.

It also explains how to reference the graphic file in the .HTM file in another HTML document.