

This Tutor will explain how use the Combine, Weld, Trim, and Intersection commands to create totally new shapes out of existing objects.

What do you want to do?

Join multiple objects to create a single object.

Create a single object out of two or more overlapping objects.

Reshape an object by removing the overlapping area.

Create a new object from an area where objects overlap.