Before you learn about joining objects, you must first create two objects and fill each with a different color.

To save you some time, a series of objects have been created for you.

Click here to add some objects automatically.