

The first step in creating a Color Limit lens is to create the object to which you want to apply it. You can apply a lens to any closed object you create with CorelDRAW's drawing tools. You'll also want to have some other objects to view through the lens to see how it affects the objects behind it.

To help save you time, we've created some objects for you.

Click here to add these objects.