

By default, the contents object is attached to its container. If you disable the Lock Contents To PowerClip command, however, you can move the container object without moving its contents.

1. Using the Pick tool, right-click the PowerClip object, then click Lock Contents To PowerClip.
2. Drag the contents object (the star) to a new location.
3. Repeat step 1 to lock the contents and container again.

