The Extract Contents command lets you remove the PowerClip by separating the contents object from its container.

Using the Pick tool, right-click the PowerClip object, and click the Extract Contents command.