

Before you learn how to apply two-point perspective, it might be helpful to select a different object. By doing so, you can compare one-point and two-point perspective.

1. Select an object with the Pick tool.
2. Click Effects menu, Add Perspective.

A grid box appears over the object.