The Print Merge command allows you to combine a text file (saved using the .TXT file extension) with a CorelDRAW file during printing.

This Tutor will teach you how to print the same document many times using different text each time.

What do you want to do?

Prepare a text file for merging

Prepare a drawing for merging

Merge a text file with a drawing