To perform a print merge, you must create a text file that contains the information you want to merge with your drawing.

1. Open a word processor and create a new file.

Click here to open a sample text file.

2. Click File menu, Save.

3. Save the file as an ANSI text file (.TXT extension), then click Save.

Click here to view an explanation of the text file.