

Because this file contains several different colors, it should be printed using process color. The three spot colors you found using the Document Info dialog box should be converted to process colors.

The easiest way to convert spot colors to process colors is by using the Find and Replace wizard.

To start the Find and Replace wizard, click Edit, Find And Replace, Replace Objects.