If the colors in your work overlap, your print job should include some form of color trapping. Some service bureaus will handle color trapping for you, but if this is not the case, do the following:

1. Enable the Always Overprint Black checkbox.

2. Enable the Auto-Spreading checkbox.