

If your work is color you need to print color separations.

The number of color separations in your print job is determined by the type of colors you are using. Talk to your service bureau if you are unsure about color settings. To print color separations, do the following:

1. Click Settings, Separations.
2. Enable the Print Separations checkbox.

Before you close the Separations dialog box, click Next to customize your color separations.