The Units list box lets you indicate the units you want to use as you create your drawing. These units will be used for all controls requiring a measurement value, including the on-screen rulers.

1. On the Property Bar, choose a unit from the Units list box.

   You'll notice that the unit you select is now displayed on the rulers and that the Paper Width and Height boxes use this unit to indicate the page dimensions.