

The final section of the Scrapbook, the Browse section, allows you to search your computer for any file. Once you find the file, you can open it or drag and drop it into the active drawing. The Browse section makes it easy to add files created using CorelDRAW or any other compatible application.