

To record a script, you click the Record button on the script manager, perform a series of actions, then click the Stop button. The Script and Preset Manager keeps track every action you perform between clicking Record and Stop.

- ◆ Click the Record button.

The Script and Preset Manager is now ready to record your actions.