

There are several ways that you can alter a curve object with the Shape tool. We'll start by changing one of the rectangle's straight sides into a curved segment.

1. Select the curve object (formerly the rectangle) with the Shape tool.
2. Click the center of the top segment (not on a node). A black circle appears where you click.
3. Click the To Curve button on the Property Bar.

