

CorelDRAW provides two ways of transforming objects, which involve changing the appearance of objects without altering their basic shape.

The mouse provides the quickest and simplest method of object manipulation. In this Tutor, you will learn some of the basics of object transformation using the mouse.

For more information on the Transform commands, which give you the advantage of precision, refer to the online Help by clicking here.