

CorelDRAW gives you the ability to leave objects unfilled, or transparent. As well, you can copy fills from one object to another, eliminating the need to re-create complex fills. Then, you can make this fill the default fill for all new objects.

What do you want to do?

Remove a fill.

Copy a fill.

Set the default
fill.