If you want to view different parts of your drawing that don't fit in your window, use the scroll bars.

To scroll the current window, hold down the left mouse button on one of the scroll arrows until the Drawing Window is no longer visible.

For more rapid scrolling, click one of the scroll elevators or drag the thumb.

To return the Drawing Window to the center of your screen, press SHIFT + F4.