The newest addition to the CorelDRAW window is the Property Bar: a context-sensitive toolbar that displays different information and controls depending on the selected tool or object.

To see an example of the Property Bar in action,

1. Click a white space in the window to ensure that no objects are selected.

2. Click the Landscape button on the Property

Bar.

[Show
Me](#)