

The Status Bar is displayed along the bottom of the CorelDRAW window, unless you move it to the top of the window. The Status Bar gives you information on your currently selected object, the action that you are performing, or the cursor position. You decide!

To move the Status Bar to the top of your CorelDRAW window, right-click the Status Bar, and click Place At Top.

Show

Me