

A URL is an address on the Internet where a Web document resides. It is made up of four components:

<http://www.corel.com/news/index.htm>

1. http - identifies the protocol to use
2. www.corel.com - indicates the server to connect to
3. news - indicates the path
4. index.htm - indicates the filename

Go to the Corel Web site.