

EarthLink Convert and Notify

EarthLink provides two exclusive programs:

- Convert converts information from existing browser and email programs on your computer to the browser and email programs you just installed.
- Notify creates a email message to notify people in your address book about your new EarthLink email address.

Converting Favorites and Bookmarks

If you had a browser or email program on your computer before you installed EarthLink 5.0, Convert identifies the program(s) and lists them for you. You can convert favorites or bookmarks from AOL, Netscape, or Internet Explorer to EarthLink 5.0 favorites.

- ▶ Select the program you want to convert favorites or bookmarks from then click Ok.

Letting People Know about your New EarthLink Email Address

The EarthLink Notify program enables you to let friends, relatives, and business associates know about your new email address. Enter your old email address so it can be included in the email message to your friends. Click View Email to see the text of the message that your friends will be receiving.

The address list shows the last names and email addresses found in your Address Book. If you're ready to send email to all of these people, click Send.

If you don't want to send an email to any of these people, click Cancel.

You can add or remove names from this list.

Adding an Address

To add an address to the notification list:

- ▶ Click Add to pop up the Add Address dialog.
- ▶ Enter the name of the person you want to add.
- ▶ Enter the email address for the person you want to add, then click OK.

Removing an Address

To remove an address from the notification list:

- ▶ Highlight the name you want to remove then click Remove.
- ▶ Click OK to confirm this removal.

Version 10.17.99

EarthLink Converter

The EarthLink Converter program enables you to convert email addresses and bookmarks from one Internet software program to another. The Converter is included as one of the additional software programs on your EarthLink CD. Once installed, it automatically detects existing Internet software on your computer (such as AOL, Internet Explorer or Netscape). Bookmark and address book files from these applications can be copied to a new Internet software program, without affecting the original files. The eligible files, and possible locations they can be copied to, appear in the list. Be sure the items you want to convert are checked then click OK. A message will let you know when the copy process is complete. Click OK to close the message and launch the EarthLink Notify program.

Components

Select the components (products) you would like to convert. For example, if you've been using AOL 4.0 and you want to convert your bookmarks to Internet Explorer 5.0. Select AOL to Internet Explorer.
